

Elham Hadian is an Iranian multimedia artist born on 4th of Sep 1984 in Tehran. She studied Painting at Alzahra University in Tehran and currently studies and works in academy of fine art in Vienna Austria.

For Elham, art is a subject that demands critical thinking to be relevant in the society we live in. Art is a medium to share her reactions and concerns, a method of communication. She started as a painter and photographer in Iran and continues to work in the field of video and animation in Vienna.

She is especially interested in the relationship between memory and creation of art.

In her latest work, PASSING, she is researching how the AD (Alzheimer) patients deal with recalling a memory.
